STATEMENT OF BELIEF

The statement of belief is the following seven doctrines which Incedo adheres to, namely:

We believe the bible to be the inspired, the infallible authoritative word of God.

We believe that there is one God eternally existent in three persons Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

We believe in the deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in his virgin birth, in his sinless life, in his miracles, in his vicarious and atoning death through his shed blood, in his bodily resurrection, in his personal return to power and glory.

We believe that regeneration by the Holy Spirit is essential for the salvation of lost and sinful men.

We believe in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit by whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a godly life.

We believe in the resurrection of both the saved and the lost; they that are saved unto the resurrection of life and they that are lost unto the resurrection of damnation.

We believe in the spiritual unity of believers in Christ.

STATEMENT OF PRACTICE

Incedo requires its members to abide by the following code of practice:

"Incedo calls upon its members and supporters to honour its stated policy that it is interchurch, non political and non sectarian. It deplores all attempts made in any way to use Incedo meetings and/or platforms for purposes other than those stated in its objects and no member or supporter by practice or by influence shall allow any single denominational bias or emphasis to be felt in Incedo's ministry".

OBJECTS

The objects for which Incedo is established in New Zealand are:

To undertake, encourage and assist in the propagation of the Christian gospel with the view to leading young people (especially) to personal faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

To develop Christian character in the individual and Christian witness in the community.

To co-operate with local churches by channelling young people into them in so far as this is consistent with the statement of belief below.

To urge the need for young people to carry out effective Christian service and to provide an avenue for such service.

To be committed followers of Jesus inviting all young people to join our faith adventure
